THE DAILY MEMPHIS AVALANCHE.

The Statistical Bureau estimates the cotton crop of Alabama, Mississippi, Florida and Georgia at 937,653 bales.

Admiral Farragut, of the American navy, arrived in London Wednesday. He was received with marked civilities.

Ex-President Fillmore has been threatened several times with assassination by a drunken fellow named Sarsfield Coyne, who claims that Mr. Fillmore owes him a large sum of money.

Twenty-two thousand dollars' worth of Government bonds were adroitly abstracted from the Cashier's desk of the First National Bank, in Providence, Rhode Island, Wednesday.

A revival is going on in the Methodist church of Rome, Georgia. The Courier of the 1st instant says "sixty-five persons have been added to that church since the meeting commenced."

Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, owing to the inadequacy of her income, has been obliged to offer for sale some forty-five thousand dollars' worth of jewels and dresses in New York. She is there under the assumed name of Mrs. Clarke.

A duel has been fought in Omaha, privately, in which both the principals were wounded. It was fought with derringers. The physicians attending the parties pronounce the wounds severe, but not dangerous.

Only fifty-five millions of internal revenue were collected in the three months ending September 30, against ninety-nine millions for the corresponding quarter last year—a falling off of forty-three million dollars.

Colonel William P. Innes having been appointed by Governor Brownlow as Receiver of the Nashville and Northwestern railroad, the road and its equipments were turned over to him on the 1st of this month.

The St. Louis Democrat of the first instant says that Thomas E. Noell, the only Conservative Member Congress, is lying dangerously ill at the Sisters' hospital in that city, and that no hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Frank A. Babcock, of Cincinnati, who attempted to murder a woman and then commit suicide, turns out to be the robber of $20,000 from the Merchants' Union Express, in Cincinnati. When the Massachusetts authorities get through with him, he will be taken to Ohio.

Mr. John Parker was shot and mortally wounded by a Mr. Scott, dying soon after, on Monday morning last, near LaGrue's Springs, Arkansas. Scott made his escape. Mr. Parker exculpated himself from the charge which had provoked the anger of his assassin.

The Atlanta Opinion of the 1st instant says that the Rev. Joseph Cross, a gentleman well known in that community, is among the victims of yellow fever in Texas. He was an able divine, and the husband of Mrs. Jane T. H. Cross, the authoress.

A personal rencounter took place a few days ago in Quebec, between two noted politicians, Mr. Devlin abused Mr. T. D'Arcy McGee, and spat in his face, whereupon McGee caned him. The affair was caused by a threat of McGee to disclose facts in the professional career of his antagonist.

At Columbus, Mississippi, Monday week, a young man named Joseph Hamilton hired a horse from a livery stable to visit some friends in the country. Four days afterwards the horse was found without a saddle, and the rider, whose father resides near Selma, has not been seen.

Hon. Lewis D. Campbell addressed a large Democratic meeting at Hamilton, Ohio, on Tuesday night. He denounced the negro suffrage amendment, declared for paying off the National debt in greenbacks, and closed with a hearty indorsement of the Democratic ticket.

A fashionable lady of Reading, Pennsylvania, a woman of culture and refinement, was found in the streets of that city, on Monday, in a state of brutal intoxication, and uttering most shocking language. A gentleman acquaintance happened to meet her, and conducted her away to her home.

The Vicksburg Herald says: "We learn from Mr. J. M. Cook that the cotton worm has done considerable mischief to the cotton crop of this county, destroying fully a third of it. He thinks very little of the cotton which is younger than half grown bolls will produce, although it may appear to do it.

The Chicago Republican of Saturday's issue thus welcomes to that city the late "forty acre" candidate for Congress in the Nashville district. "D. H. Mason, of Nashville, Tennessee, an editor in Georgia before and during the war, and who was spewed out of Tennessee politics for treachery to both parties, has found a refuge (by invitation) in the editorial staff of the Chicago Tribune."

In the vicinity of De Witt, Arkansas, on Sunday evening last, Mr. William Hughes was killed by some secret assassin who lay in wait for him, and shot him twice in the head—first striking him on the head and prostrating him, and then presenting the weapon to his head and dreadfully mangling him. Suspicions are entertained of the perpetrator, but nothing positive has transpired to fasten the crime on any one.

The body of a murdered man, supposed to be a negro driver, was found on the lower Arkadelphia road, near Tulip, Arkansas, on the 27th ultimo. There was little else left but the skeleton—a bullet hole showing through the skull. Suspicions rest on some travelers who passed that way a week before, and who are supposed to have killed the driver to get possession of the hack, which had probably been hired at Little Rock or Pine Bluff.

Mr. H. A. Taylor, brother-in-law, and agent of Miss Ida Vernon, the actress, while laboring under a fit of temporary insanity, brought on by a severe attack of congestion of the brain, leaped from the third story of the Mercy Hospital, at Pittsburg, to the ground, on Wednesday, and was so badly injured that he died shortly afterward. Miss Vernon, in consequence, threw up her engagement at the Opera House, and left with the remains of the deceased, for New York.

William L. Wren, indicted for the murder of John Glenn, and Moses D. Dunaway, indicted for the murder of Alfred Blackwell, made their escape from the custody of the Sheriff of [illegible] county, Arkansas, on the 17th of September. The Governor of Arkansas has offered a reward of one hundred dollars each for their recapture, and [illegible] Carleton, the Sheriff, has offered an additional reward of fifty dollars for each.

A Jewish synagogue was instituted at Wilmington, North Carolina, on the 28th ultimo, the first ever erected in the "North Carolina State."

Paris is to have an unusual pageant, being no more or less than a general funeral procession in honor of LeDuc de Reichstadt, son of Napoleon I, whose remains are to be transferred from Vienna to the Abbey St. Denis, Paris, with great ceremony.

General Mower has telegraphed to General Grant that the election passed off quietly in New Orleans, as well as in the other parts of the State of Louisiana, that have been heard from, and that the Convention has been called by a small majority.

The Hansboro, Mississippi, Democrat mentions a singular disease that has broke out among children in Perry county. It says: When a child is first taken, the whole nervous system is contracted, and the patient suffers the most excruciating pains, and cannot bear to be touched. In convulsions, with the nerves contracted, the neck is suddenly broken. This is an awful malady, and we hope some one will discover a remedy for it.

A young Scotchman named Hugh Crawford Pollok, who arrived in New York about two years since, and shortly after enlisted in the Fifth United States Cavalry as a private soldier, has, by the death of his father in Scotland, fallen heir to a baronetcy and £5,000 a year. Through the intercession of the late Sir Frederick Bruce, General Grant has discharged Pollok from the service. For some months past the youthful baronet had been discharging the duties of farrier of his regiment.

The National Intelligencer of Wednesday says it is almost useless to contradict the stories telegraphed from here relative to Judge Underwood and District Attorney Chandler having been in consultation with the Government on the forthcoming trial of Jefferson Davis. It adds, however, the following: "We now state distinctly, upon authority, that the government has not only not taken any action in the matter, and contemplates none, but that neither the President nor the Attorney General has been consulted upon the subject, by either Judge Underwood or Mr. Chandler. In other words, that the whole story is a fabrication throughout."

OUR FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.

CHATEAU ST. ETIENNE, PRES PONT DE BRIQUE,
BOULOGNE S MER, FRANCE, September 12, 1867.

EDITORS AVALANCHE: After rambling about the continent a long time I took a chateau near this city, and judge of my pleasure on finding here, forwarded from London, an arm full of AVALANCHES; yes, an arm full, for I clasped them to my bosom, as the great Swiss leader did the spears. Those AVALANCHES did not terrify, but delighted me, and in acknowledgment of your kindness I sit down to write you a hurried line. It happens that we have no politics here—the people have nothing whatever, you know, to do with the government, and hence their newspapers are poor things. I put the AVALANCHE by the side of La Presse (Parisian) and my wife and I laughed heartily at the poor country cousin placed by Gallaway's elegant sheet. Indeed, there was no comparison as to outward appearance, and, of course, the matter was far inferior to yours. Indeed, I have seen but two papers in all Europe approaching the AVALANCHE, and not one equal to it.

Well, if we have no politics, what must I write about? Why, of course, the arts and religion. Yes, my darling, the people in America think themselves very religious, and thousands of men, like yourself, hold aloof because they believe it all, as practiced there, a humbug. I tell you the truth, Gallaway, you are not far wrong! but I really believe if you lived here you'd be a very religious fellow. They have no "big preaching," and "controversies," and "brother haters;" but the morning air is all in tune with bells, answering from hill to hill, until their sweet voices are lost in the great eternity-like ocean! You go to church, and everybody seems devout—all are praying, and the priest offering his sacrifice. They all seem in a good humor, contented and happy. The poor are contented with their lot, and the rich tender and giveth to them. "O, France, France, France!" I exclaimed, as I came from church yesterday," I love thy blue skies and green hills and cheerful people. O, thou land of Fenelon and Poisiant and Massilon! why do our Western savans consider thee a land of tyranny and infidelity? True, your religion is different, but what Pope has ever denied that America's religion during the last war was most beautiful? While I was thus moaning, the sweet chaunts of a multitude of pilgrims rose from a neighboring valley. They were "pilerins de Paris," coming to Boulogne, all dressed in white and bearing gorgeous white banners. O, it was so beautiful—the air was so fresh, the hills so green, the skies so blue, that all heaven and earth seemed to smile upon them! These pilgrims were arriving, last week from every quarter of France and Spain, England, Ireland and Germany to pay their vows at the shrine of "Our Lady," in the grand cathedral, Notre Dame. And well they might, if tradition be true, for here it was that the Blessed Virgin, when Mahomet took Jerusalem, placed her world-famed statue. Standing on the prow of a ship without sails, she appeared near "Caligula's Tower," and delivered the statue to the rejoicing multitude. Ever since has this spot been sacred in the eyes of all Europe! As I was telling this tradition to my children, little Mae exclaimed: "I don't believe that." "No," said I, "daughter, and many other children larger than you are doubt the story of Jonah!" A little while afterward I heard her singing in her doll house:

> "See how we grabble here below,
> Fond of these earthly toys."

And, by some strange freak of association, my mind turned to our old townsman, Miles Owen, who went sailing with me one Sunday en devant the war. The wind rose to a squall, and Miles turned as white as our "flowing sheet," his Bishop Polk chin and nose almost came together, he grasped the boat on either side, and Mae's little song came in my mind: "See how we grabble here below," etc. Reaching land, the old gentleman exclaimed: "I didn't mind drowning, but what the Memphis papers would say about sailing on Sunday!" The moral is that these people never care what people say; they believe their traditions, and are purer and happier and more contented than any race on earth.

The Cathedral contains about twenty altars, and the dome alone, built from the "catacombs" up, is a large church. The central altar is one of the wonders of the world, being presented to "Our Lady" by a Roman Prince. It is of massive marble, being large, exquisitely carved, and adorned with jewels and precious metals. "A stable," exclaimed Thomas Jefferson, "is good enough to worship Jesus in." These "poor, benighted people" don't think so; but in "Cæsar's old fort," overlooking the sea, they still rally, once a year, the Roman Empire, to honor Jesus Christ and His Mother.

CHATEAU ST. ETIENNE, NEAR PONT DE BRIQUE,
BOULOGNE, FRANCE, September 14, 1867.

EDITORS AVALANCHE: The papers here are as greedy for the AVALANCHE as ever I myself was, when Sumpter had fired the first gun. It takes a long time for these great commotions to affect this quiet country. The war is just exciting them; and they are asking on every hand: Has the United States really passed away? Is that Republic numbered with Greece and Rome? What did the noble people of the South do to deserve such a fate as they now deplore and suffer? True, they had you mating with Northern Democrats and "sensible niggers." Oh, my darling, abandon it. The cause is hopeless; you can never breathe life into such a putrid carcass as "American liberty."

To-day I read aloud, at the dinner table, to some friends and my boys and wife, your leader of the 13th of August, and to a sparkling glass of French wine we first drank your health, and then shouted, just as though we had been in camp, "huzza for Gallaway."

Give it up and come to me. I'll support you the rest of your days, my old "war horse." Or, if you like it better, we'll start an AVALANCHE here, that will make the Alpine glaciers tremble. Here we can always have fish and wine for nothing; an armful of celery and other salad for one sou. Music breathes from every promenade; all faces are cheerful, and all hearts are light. Why should you linger in swamps among poor negroes and despicable Yankees? Slaves, inherited from England and Massachusetts. True, their white population being outnumbered by Northern emigration, they were oppressed by tariffs. True, they fought bravely for their rights. But why place them under the dominion of their former slaves? Such questions are asked me every day. And when I see you, old "Fell," as I have seen at sea, "a noble wreck," dismantled and dashed by the waves on every rock, I involuntarily ask: "Is this the bark that rode the billow, 'like a thing of life?'" O, I know how your proud spirit writhes under the comparisons which I make. But it is now high time that I should give you some account of what is going on here.

The "Pan Anglican Council" is now the great subject. This august assembly meets in a few days, and the London and Paris papers are asking anxiously what do they propose? Will a union between the Roman, Greek and Episcopal churches be proposed? Will some general propositions be made to all dissenters? Alas! alas! The Archbishop of Canterbury has this morning answered these questions. The council is to last three days. The question for the first day's discussion will take the form of a resolution, viz: 'Resolved, That deploring the divisions of christendom, we believe that the shortest way to union will be found in our devoting ourselves to lives of charity and holiness.' This is really the only question which concerns the church at large, the other two days being devoted to the consideration of "colonial churches." And the question naturally occurs, why did all these seventy-five bishops leave their suffering dioceses and traverse more than half the globe, if prayer and charity at home was to do the work? Imagine our little Bish, trudging around Memphis to [illegible] his money to [illegible], on his arrival in England, informed that the union he desires must be effected by going straight home and saying his prayers in St. Mary's Church. It may be a rebuff to a little honest vanity, but really it seems like trifling with too serious a subject. Who can contemplate this proposed farce, and glance at the same time at the Roman Council at Rome, without shrinking from the Church of England with shame? In the one case [illegible] inefficiency is acknowledged; in the other, [illegible] Bishops and [illegible] Priests, chanting the Te Deum, proclaim themselves fully [illegible] to decree whatever the Church of Christ may need, [illegible] to bind all the members by such a decree, which [illegible] own church can only recommend, and which they wait for [illegible] of Parliament, wherein Jews and [illegible]

EDITORIAL
THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD.

SUNDAY, : : : : : : : : OCTOBER 6, 1867

OWING to the non-arrival of a part of our material, which was expected on yesterday, we are compelled to forego our enlargement until Tuesday morning.

WE have been intending for some time to present to our readers an editorial on each Sabbath suited to the day. It is pleasant to turn away from the strife of politics and indulge in reflections on the character of some pure and noble spirit that yielded his life to the lost cause. What can be more refreshing to the christian patriot than such reflections. We have no national monument to our glorious dead. No national cemetery prepared at public expense contains their ashes. They sleep in unmarked graves upon which no lofty column rises to tell of their glorious deeds. It is left for us to weep for the dead, and for our noble and heroic wives and daughters to sprinkle flowers on their graves. We gave to our cause the best and noblest blood of the South. Among the States which gave its chivalry, its talents and its wealth to the cause was Alabama, that sits like a queen between Georgia and Mississippi. Alabama may be disgraced by the timidity, the lust of power and want of genuine principle of her present imbecile Governor, but from the graves of her heroic sons there arises a glory and a splendor which no present imbecility or future tergiversations of old party hacks can ever obscure. Some of our best and brightest days have been spent in glorious Alabama. For her and her sons and daughters we feel a veneration and a love which cannot be blasted by storms, effaced by misfortunes or worn by time. Among her brightest and purest sons was Major THOMAS H. HOBBS, of Limestone county. He was of the cavalier stock of the Old Dominion. His education was thorough, varied and polished. He wielded a facile pen, and in his writings showed a refined and classic taste. He was gifted with a clear, cogent and convincing eloquence. Calm, dignified, self-poised, he discussed the most difficult questions with eminent ability. As a member of the Alabama Legislature, he devoted his time and talents to develop the resources of his own great State. He was foremost in all noble enterprises. In her system of popular education, Alabama owed more to THOMAS HOBBS than to any other one man. A politician of the old Democratic school, he was the courteous and gentlemanly opponent, never condescending to low and unmanly tricks to gain his point. Pure as a woman, and as gentle as pure, he was the embodiment of masculine energy and heroic valor. With a courage cool, calm and daring, he entered, at a very early period, the service of the Confederate cause. To that cause he sacrificed his pure and noble life. An only son, tenderly nurtured and possessed of large wealth, he bore, without murmur or complaint, all the hardships of the camp and the field. Severely wounded at the battle of the Seven Pines, he was taken to the house of a friend, and most tenderly cared for by a most devoted wife and many warm friends. For a time hopes were entertained that he might survive. But, after protracted suffering, he yielded his lofty and pure spirit to the God that gave it. A Christian, humble and faithful, he often prayed with his men. And among all that fell in our bloody and fruitless struggle, no purer spirit passed from the storm of battle to the serene calm of Heaven. When we think of such men we still hope; for though all is lost but honor, that shines with auroral splendors all along our Southern sky, and gilds with its light the clouds that darken our land.

ON the 30th ultimo President WOODRUFF, of the Memphis and Ohio railroad, made a proposition through the columns of this paper, to those who have availed themselves of the columns of the Bulletin, that if they "will come forward and pay the amount advanced by the Louisville and Nashville railroad company, and assume to pay the liabilities they have assumed," the lease shall be "transferred to them, or a new one made with the consolidation clause left out if they so prefer." President WOODRUFF further engages to "decline a re-election," and "use all the influence I (he) possess(es) with the stockholders of the Memphis and Ohio railroad company to vote for any set of directors they may select." Commenting on this the Louisville Courier of the 4th says: "It would be in excellent taste for the Bulletin folks to dance up to this proposition or moderate their howls." They have done neither. With the skill of the "artful dodger," they have avoided an acceptance of the proposition, and yet in every issue since, column after column has appeared, denouncing the management of the road and all connected with it, and calling for a new set of directors. To judge from the action of the Board of Aldermen, all this outcry has not availed much, and the probabilities are strong that the former directors will be re-elected, and the present management continued.

IN the course of a long and elaborate article on the Louisville and Nashville railroad and its branches, the Louisville Courier of Friday says:

> The Louisville and Nashville railroad company, backed up by Louisville and Nashville, and the other communities interested, is one of the greatest railroad combinations in the world. It can raise money, negotiate bonds, and construct roads on terms more advantageous to the different localities concerned in them than is possible through any other agency.

LONDON, October 4—Midnight.

Latest dispatches from Florence announce that the insurgents holding strong position near Bagnasea in Viterba, were attacked by the Papal forces, after a short fight resulted in the defeat of the attacking party, who were obliged to hastily withdraw. Loss not stated. The effect of this victory is very inspiring to the party of action. A public meeting of the friends of Garibaldi was held at Turin yesterday. Revolutionary speeches were made by many distinguished persons. Meetings of like character are contemplated in other cities in Italy. A prisoner at Capera, Garibaldi has issued a stirring address to his followers. He recites at length the grievances of Italy, and asks his country men to redress them. Now he appeals strongly to their patriotism, and urges all his friends to march forthwith to Rome.

AUCTION.

Public Sale
OF
300 ACRES SUBURBAN LAND
ON TEN YEARS' CREDIT.

I PROPOSE to sell at public sale, to the highest bidder on THURSDAY, the 14th of November, 1867, about three hundred acres Field and Forest Land, on my Homestead Tract, situated three miles east of Memphis, at the head of Union avenue, and lying between Central avenue and the Old State Line road. The most popular street pavements being now in process of construction in Memphis, good turnpikes or street railways on the roads leading from the city directly through this property, must soon follow, thereby affording the most reasonable probability of its great and rapid enhancement of value.

In stating the advantages of this property, I would specially refer to the HEALTH of the locality as having been always considered equal if not superior to that of any portion of the city environs; while the high character of the neighborhood, and the provision made for CHURCH AND SCHOOL PRIVILEGES, combine to render it one of the most desirable points for a suburban residence which the vicinity of Memphis affords.

The TITLE to this property has been vested in my father and myself for thirty years without interruption, and is free from any incumbrance.

THE SUBDIVISION OF THE GROUNDS will be in lots of about Five Acres, according to plans to be seen at the office of the Auctioneers. The avenues will be opened and the lots numbered so as to be readily examined before the day of sale.

BEING DETERMINED TO SELL, I shall offer the following liberal

TERMS:

One-tenth Cash, the balance in TEN ANNUAL INSTALMENTS, with interest from date. Warranty Deeds given, and Trust Deeds taken, waiving redemption. These terms will make it very easy for any one to secure a pleasant Home, which must constantly increase in value and comfort, as the growth of Memphis continues.

The Buntyn Tract at Public Sale.

DESIROUS of carrying out as speedily as possible the provisions of the Will of G. Buntyn, deceased, in the disposal of his Homestead Tract, WE WILL OFFER AT PUBLIC SALE the remaining portion of the Tract, consisting of about

SEVENTY-FIVE LOTS,

Varying from two to ten acres in size, embracing with the field lands all the wood land lots on the Tract.

The high reputation for fine health which this locality enjoys, and the choice of easy and quick communication with the city by railway or dirt road, give to these lands advantages that must be apparent to the business men of Memphis, as a cheap, convenient and pleasant point at which to establish their family residences, combining so fully the advantages of town and country.

With the object of removing all difficulty in selling, we shall offer the property upon the following easy

TERMS—One fourth cash, balance in 6, 12, 18 and 24 months with interest. Warranty deeds given and deed of trust taken, waiving redemption.

EVERY LOT PUT UP WILL BE SOLD WITHOUT RESERVE. Plans of the lots may be obtained at the office of the Auctioneers; each lot being staked so as to be examined before the sale.

Sale will be upon the premises on WEDNESDAY, the 16th of October, 1867.

FRENCH MEDICINES PREPARED BY GRIMAULT & COMPANY
Chemists to His Imperial Highness Prince Napoleon.

THESE different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of chemistry and therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as their names sufficiently indicate their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and prescribed by the faculty in the whole world. They widely differ from those numerous medicines advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to but a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France with regard to the sale of medical preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine, and have been proved efficacious, either in the hospitals or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorised by the government. This fact must be a guarantee for the excellency of Messrs. GRIMAULT & CO.'S medicines.

Dr. Leras' (Doctor of Medicine) Liquid Phosphate of Iron.

The newest and most esteemed medicine in cases of CHLOROSIS, PAINS IN THE STOMACH, DIFFICULT DIGESTION, DISMENORRHEA, ANIMEA, GENERAL DEBILITY and POORNESS OF BLOOD. It is particularly recommended to regulate the functions of nature, and to all ladies of delicate constitution, as well as to persons suffering under any kind of debility whatsoever. It is the preservative of health par excellence in all warm and relaxing climates.

No More Cod Liver Oil—Grimault's Syrup of Iodized Horse Radish.

This medicine has been administered with the utmost success in the hospitals of Paris. It is a perfect substitute for COD LIVER OIL and has been found most beneficial in DISEASES OF THE CHEST, SCROFULA, LYMPHATIC DISORDERS, GREEN SICKNESS, MUSCULAR ATONY and LOSS OF APPETITE. It regenerates the constitution in purifying the blood, it being the most powerful depurative known. It has also been applied with happy results in DISEASES OF THE SKIN. Further, it will be found to be of great benefit to young children subject to HUMORS and OBSTRUCTION OF THE GLANDS.

Consumption Cured—Grimault's Syrup of Hypophosphite of Lime.

This new medicine is considered to be a sovereign remedy in cases of PHTHISIS and other DISEASES OF THE LUNGS. It promptly removes all the most serious symptoms. The cough is relieved, night perspirations cease, and the patient is rapidly restored to health.

N. B.—Be sure to see that the signature of GRIMAULT & CO. is affixed to the bottle, as this syrup is liable to imitations.

No More Difficult or Painful Digestion—Dr. Burin du Buisson's (Laureate of the Paris Imperial Academy of Medicine) Digestive Lozenges.

This delicious preparation is always prescribed by the most reputed medical men in France in cases of derangements of the digestive functions, such as GASTRITIS, GASTRALGIA, LONG AND LABORIOUS DIGESTION, wind in the stomach and bowels, EMACIATION, JAUNDICE and COMPLAINTS OF THE LIVER AND LOINS.

Nervous Headaches, Neuralgia, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Instantly Cured by Grimault's Guarana.

This vegetable substance, which grows in the Brazils, has been employed since time immemorial to cure INFLAMMATION OF THE BOWELS. It has proved of late to be of the greatest service in cases of CHOLERA, as it is preventive and a cure in cases of Diarrhea.

Ferro Manganic Powder, prepared by Burin du Buisson, approved by the Academy of Medicine in Paris.

A small quantity of this powder in a glass of water is sufficient to obtain instantly an effervescing mineral and gaseous water to be drank at meals, either pure or mixed with wine.

It is a most valuable medicine for persons suffering from Chlorosis, Stomach Aches, and for Ladies suffering from Difficult or Suspended Menstruation. It is especially recommended to persons unable to digest the ordinary medicines containing iron.

This celebrated preparation has the advantage to prevent all tendency to constipation, and to contain a certain portion of manganese, considered by the most eminent medical men as indispensable in cases of treatment by ferruginous medicines.

No More Copaiba and Cubebs—Grimault's Capsules and Liquid Extract of Matico Vegetalis.

Where all other medicines have failed these preparations will always effect a cure. They insure rapid and extraordinary cure of severe, recent and chronic cases of private diseases. They are used in the hospitals of Paris by the celebrated Dr. Ricord, and are found greatly superior to all hitherto known mineral remedies and copaiba and cubebs. The injection is used in recent and capsules in the more chronic cases.

HAVING completed her repairs and undergone desirable alterations, will resume her regular day in the Memphis and Vicksburg Trade on SATURDAY, the 12th instant, at five o'clock p.m. The repairs have added much to her former beauty and comfort, and the alterations increased her unrivalled speed.

The business and traveling community will find combined in her all the comfort, speed and safety of a first class one, &c., and may rely implicitly on her as a permanent fixture in the trade through the entire season. No changes have been made in her well known corps of officers, who, having been in the trade for years, know the wants of the people, and have the will and wish to supply them. Her owners gratefully tender their thanks to the Merchants, the Planters and business community in general, for the liberal patronage so kindly bestowed on them heretofore, and hope by their conduct in future to merit a continuance of the same.

CALVARY (EPISCOPAL) CHURCH.—This church will be open at 10½ a.m. and 7½ p.m. Services by Rev. G. W White. Strangers in the city are cordially invited.

CENTRAL METHODIST CHURCH.—There will be preaching at this church, on Union street, both morning and night. Holy Sacrament will be administered at the eleven o'clock service by Rev. J. T. C. Collins, pastor.

GRACE CHURCH.—The repairs having been completed on the interior of this church, the usual services will be resumed by the rector, Rev. B. F. Brooke, at eleven a.m. and half past seven p.m to-day. Childrens' service at half past three p.m. Sunday school at nine a.m. Church symbolism will be the appropriate subject of the morning discourse.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION.—This organization will meet at the new court rooms, on the corner of Union and Second, to-day. A full attendance is desired. The meeting will take place at three o'clock.

LAW COURT.—Motion day was continued over to Monday. The roll will be called, commencing at letter K and running down to Z.

SHELBY COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT.—The criminal docket will be taken up on Monday, and called regularly.

RETURNED.—Alderman Johnson, of the Second Ward has returned after an extended absence. So has Beaumont.

MULFORD, CLEMENT & CO.—We would direct the attention of our readers to the card of this firm published in our columns this morning. John E. Mulford, is a gentleman of large commercial experience, and one of whom Memphis may well be proud. Our friends will not forget this firm.

GRAND LUNCH.—There will be a grand lunch at 383 Second street, opposite Greenlaw Opera House, to-morrow morning. This house has just been opened by Louis Waller, and he intends to keep a first-class saloon, where the finest of wines, liquors and St. Louis beer will be dispensed to his customers.

INSTALLATION.—Division No. 60, Sons of Temperance, had a public installation on Friday night, and a good number of persons were present. The following were the gentlemen installed: William Chambers, W. P.; Henry Clements, R. S.; L O Rosselle, A. R. S.; J. W. Murray, F. S.; Ed. Stout, Treasurer; John Waynesburg, Chaplain; Robert Garsido, Con.; J. B. Ford, A. C.; Charles Mortimer, I. S. Rev. Dr. Ford was introduced, and made an address, as did also Dr. Grasty.

JOB PRINTING.—The Franklin Job Office, on Court street, is still turning out the best work in the city, and it could not well be otherwise, as it owns the best material, the best presses, and employs the best of workmen. The speed and certainty with which Mr. Toof turns out his work has grown into a proverb, and you can be certain that at the hour he promises you your job it will be ready for you. Don't forget the Franklin when you want any printing done.

TOBACCO.—Edmonds, Pettigrew & Co., who have a bonded warehouse on Jefferson street, near Main, have in store the largest stock of tobacco we believe on the Mississippi river, and it was but yesterday that they received nine hundred boxes, with thousands of others on the road. Tobacco dealers will take notice, as this firm is undoubtedly the tobacco house of the Southwest.

THE KIDNAPPING CASE.—Officer Jericho was yesterday arrested by Sheriff Winters for delivering his prisoner to the Mississippians without due authority of law. He was taken before 'Squire Hall, and held to bail in one thousand dollars. Jericho states that the negro is in jail in Mississippi, and that he endeavored to recover him, but failed. For a man of his experience around courts, he should have known better.

SMITH & LEECH, RECTIFIERS AND LIQUOR DEALERS, 342 SECOND STREET, MEMPHIS.—Our readers who are in want of the very best of wines, brandies and whiskies, should call upon this most excellent firm of agreeable and reliable dealers. They may rely upon getting what is good, if Messrs Smith and Leech tell them that it is so, and at the same time upon having their transactions conducted with a courtesy always agreeable to the buyer.

MILLER & LEIDY.—This well known establishment has now, as it always has had, the finest, best and most recherche stock of hats in the city, and Memphis may well be proud of this first class hat store. Mr. Leidy has recently been East, and has selected such a stock as Memphis has not seen for years. Our readers in want of hats have only to call at No. 269 Main street, and they will not go away without being suited.

Emmons & Son, No. 10 Jefferson street and 393 Main street, have received Frank Leslie, Police News, Staats Zeitung, New York Weekly, Independent, Country Gentleman, Metropolitan Record, Turf, Field and Farm, New York Clipper, Irish People, Irish American, Comic Monthly, Pleasant Hours, Yankee Notions, all for November; and American Agriculturist for October.

INQUESTS.—An inquest was held, yesterday, on the body of George Howard, a paper hanger, living on Madison street, near Second street. The verdict of the jury was that he died from natural causes. Another was held upon the body of Simon Harris, a negro employed in hauling blocks for the Nicolson pavement. He was taken sick at twelve o'clock, and was dead at half-past one o'clock. Verdict, death caused by congestion.

A NEW MILLINERY ESTABLISHMENT.—We would remind the thousand and one friends of Mrs. Sullivan, late Miss Sallie Finn, that her grand opening takes place Monday. The reputation that this cynosure of style acquired while catering to the taste of the fashionables of Memphis has lost none of its merit because she has determined to "go it alone." Her stock is unequaled, and the ladies will say so when they examine it, and, as it will be displayed by fair and tasteful and intelligent saleswomen, we know our fair friends will be pleased, and it will not be long before not to dress from Mrs Sullivan will be to be out of the fashion. Remember the opening to-morrow.

THE QUICKEST ON RECORD.—Gabe Marny, Friday, stole a pair of revolvers from a Mr. Harris, living a short distance in the country. He was arrested on Saturday, and arrived in town at eleven o'clock, was immediately taken before Judge Reeves, who sent him before the grand jury; the jury found an indictment; he was tried under it, and sentenced by Judge Reeves to three years in the penitentiary—all in the short space of an hour and a half, arriving in jail again at half after twelve o'clock. Why does not our Criminal Court emulate this? Had we a live Judge in the chair instead of grandmother Hunter, so many criminals would not be at large or so much crime unpunished.

AN OLD MEMPHIS MERCHANT.—We were pleased to meet upon the streets, a few days since, Mr. A. F Wells, an old Memphis merchant, and perhaps one of the most popular that ever did business in our city. The numerous friends of Mr. Wells will be gratified to learn that he proposes to commence business again, where he was so pre-eminently successful for twenty years. He is now engaged in arranging very important law suits which are to be decided during the next few days; and as a Southern man we wish him success against Northern Radicalism.

We regret, in common with this community, that Mr. A. W. Young, a most worthy, popular and efficient officer of the Government, has resigned his position as General Inspector for this district. Mr. Young was, for several years, an Assistant Assessor in our city, and everybody will bear testimony as to his efficiency as an officer, and the courteous and gentlemanly manner in which he always discharged his duties. We learn he will most probably resume his official labors in Mississippi, and we commend him to the people there, or wherever he may go, as a true man and a gentleman. May success attend him.

NOTICE.—Ed. Worsham, in the AVALANCHE building, has everything in the news line this morning that the heart could desire, or that money can purchase. He has the Chimney Corner, Album, Record, Waverley Magazine, Clipper, LaCrosse Democrat, Base Ball Chronicle, Irish American, Irish Republic, Irish People, Banner of Light, Freeman's Journal, Boston Pilot, Field, Turf and Farm, Budget of Fun, Phunny Phellow, Yankee Notions, Merryman and Nix-Nax, Frank Leslie's, Pleasant Hours for November, Lady's Friend and Every Saturday, monthly and weekly part.

THREATENED INCREASE OF TAXATION.—The Assessors of city property began their labors yesterday. They insist that every property holder should send in to the Mayor's office a written description of his property, and especially state what property he has sold or leased during the past year. Our city readers may save themselves much trouble by complying with the requirements of the assessors. We heard one of the assessors say that, as city scrip was very low, the people could afford to pay very high taxes. Our city readers may make their own inferences. There is still probably a million dollars worth of untaxed property in the city. It is the business of these assessors to discover the lucky owners. It would be well for persons to write out information intended for the assessors. They can't talk to everybody.

Sproule & McCown.

Enterprise and energy are the life of a city, and a city that possesses a body of merchants impregnated with these qualities is sure to achieve success and prosperity, as a natural consequence of their possession. Where mercantile energy is not—there is stagnation, dullness and financial embarrassment. No surer does water run down hill than do these results follow. We have been led to these reflections at the present time from an inspection we made yesterday of the establishment of Messrs. Sproule & McCown, No. 231 Main street, under the Worsham House. This is beyond doubt the greatest clothing house in the country, its ramifications extending from New York to Memphis. Its manufactory, No. 13 Barclay street, New York, is one of the largest in the country, and the amount of clothing it turns out to supply the firms in the different cities, is incredible; all made up in the highest style of fashion, and of a texture and quality unsurpassed. In St. Louis this firm is represented by A. W. Sproule & Co., in Louisville by Sproule & Mandeville, in New Orleans by Sproule & McCown, in Vicksburg by Sproule & McCown, and in Memphis by the names that head this article. Like all other occupations, the clothing business is a science, and it takes years of experience to bring its operations to that degree of perfection which will insure satisfaction to the customer and profit to manufacturer and seller; and we know that these different firms have had that experience, for we have had dealings personally with four of the firms, and cheerfully bear evidence to the fact. But at this time we propose to speak specially of the Memphis firm. On entering, you perceive a large, airy, commodious store, whose loaded shelves are groaning with the wealth of clothing that encumbers them. Coats and vests which would have made a D'Orsay sigh for the uncouth things he wore; pantaloons, in fineness of texture, finish and fit, excelling anything known in the clothing business; shirts, some rivaling in fineness the thread of gossamer, and white as the first fall of snow, others combining firmness and substantiality, composed of as good cotton as ever grew in our celebrated cotton belt, and of as fine linen as the fairest Irish hand ever turned upon the green to the fervid kiss of the sun. Furnishing goods, the like and abundance of which no firm possessing not their facilities could procure. In this line everything which enters into a gentleman's wardrobe can be found, of the finest, richest, and most substantial kinds. Then again this firm needs must know the wants of our Memphis public, because for the last eight years they have catered to the wants and tastes of Memphis, and their increased business from year to year shows that they have done it well. It could not well be otherwise, for besides the experience and tact of the heads of the firm, they have associated with them men whose names are in themselves alone a guarantee to all Southern men of the strength and honorable dealing of the firm. Here we found Major Phil. Allen, of Forrest's command, whose name during the war became the synonym of gallantry and courage, and we assure our readers that the return of peace has but added to these qualities those other great virtues of the soldier, refinement, urbanity and politeness, and he stands to-day as fine a gentleman as Memphis holds. Here also doing the agreeable and attentive to the wants of his customers, as he was when acting as the lone and watchful sentinel for the stealthy tramp of the prowling invader, was Ed. Beasley, who at the first peal of war shouldered his musket in the Shelby Grays for the defense of his country. A man who makes a good soldier need never fear failure in anything else, and the whole record of the Southern army shows none better, in their positions, than the gallant Major Allen and Captain Ed. Beasley. Then again this house, through their own manufactory, needs must be able to undersell any firm who buy their goods from the manufacturers, for they manufacture themselves, and have to pay no manufacturer's profit. The goods in this house pass through but one set of hands. The goods in most other houses pass through the manufacturers, the wholesale house, and the retail, and consequently the purchasers have to pay their profits, while Sproule & McCown's goods coming from their own manufactory, have to pay but one. The most obtuse can see the difference. In another column will be found their advertisement, and we commend it to our readers, city and country, for a careful perusal.

UNITED STATES COURT.

Discharge of the Grand Jury.

The United States grand jury, yesterday discharged, passed resolutions of thanks to its foreman, Colonel Taylor, of Tipton, for his "fairness, patience and excellent judgment, evinced in discharging the duties of his position." Mr. Rosselle, Secretary of the jury, was also complimented for efficiency. Then the officers of the court, among the rest Mr. Warren, the new District Attorney, Mr. Tomeny, the Marshal, the Clerk of the court, and our friend Wheeler were each lauded by the jury for their politeness, devotion to business, and skill in the execution of their several tasks. Judge Trigg won the plaudits of the jurors. Their curt resolution is in these strong words:

> Of Judge Trigg, of the United States District Court, it is needless for us to speak in terms of praise. He has filled his place upon the bench, as he has the station of a private citizen, with faultless excellence.

True bills were found, yesterday, against fifteen or twenty violators of the law; the employment of a stenographer by grand juries was commended as an indispensable necessity, and then the grand jury was finally discharged.

Judge Trigg, in dismissing the jury, indulged in a commendatory address, in which he congratulated the jury and the country on the harmony and kindliness of feeling that characterized their proceedings. We are told that perhaps one hundred or one hundred and fifty true bills have been found, mainly affecting those who have violated the revenue laws of the United States.

UNITED STATES COURT.—The Millikin habeas corpus case came up for hearing before Judge Trigg on yesterday.

Mr. Anderson opened the case in behalf of the petitioner. He reviewed the decisions of the English Courts and the action of the British Parliament on military tactics and executions. The question in the present case is, whether the obligations of a parole ceases with the war, and whether the proclamation of the President declaring peace and amnesty changes the status of a paroled prisoner. Congress declared Tennessee in the Union, by receiving its Senators and Congressmen, even if the President had no power over the question. He denied the authority of General Thomas to order a court to try his client, but if he had power to order such court, his client did not come within the scope of its jurisdiction. He cited the action of the English Courts and Parliament in the cases of the Earl of Lancaster, Governor Wall, of Goree and the Reverend John Smith, a fomenter of insurrection, in the Island of Demerara, and commented on the decisions of the Supreme Court on civil and military commissions, etc. His address lasted about an hour, and was regarded as an able one.

District Attorney Perkins, replied in a short speech, going over the ground presented by Mr. Anderson.

He contended that the obligations of a parole yet exists, and exists for all time, unless Congress should declare otherwise. He denied the power of the President to issue a peace proclamation, it being vested in Congress.

He regretted that Congress had not followed the course indicated by the President, as this would have brought peace, but Congress did not see fit so to do. Numerous authorities were cited in support of the proposition advanced.

Judge Barbour Lewis, reviewed Mr. Anderson's position at length, and contended that when a paroled prisoner violated the law he violated his parole—he was to obey the laws, etc He insisted that peace did not exist in the States over which military Governors had been appointed, though there was no open opposition to the Government, yet in a legal sense these districts were in a state of war, and governed solely by military power. He asserted that even in Tennessee military power and authority yet existed, and cited the action of General Thomas during the late elections throughout the State, where he had interferred without being invited by State authority.

The arguments took a wide range into Constitutional questions, but direct authority, such as cases in point, seemed to be at a discount. The arguments, so far, seemed to be more general than specific, probably owing to the novelty of the question in this country, and the absence of adjudicated cases in point.

Judge Lewis, not having concluded his argument at the time of adjournment of court, the case was continued until Tuesday next.

Attorney General Wallace, for the petitioner will make the closing argument in the case.

No other business was done in court on yesterday.

NEW DRUG FIRM.—We would call the special attention of our readers to the advertisement to be found in another column of to-day's paper, of the new firm of J. B. Wasson & Co., who have bought out the large and well known drug house, No. 315 Main street. The new firm hold out the greatest inducements that can be offered to their old friends and the public generally. The card, however, speaks for itself. But we would add that in connection with the principal of this house is associated our old and popular druggist, I. F. Farnsworth, who has for so many years conducted the drug business in this city. Mr. Farnsworth's name and character as a druggist of long and tried experience is so familiar and well known to every one that any encomium we might pass upon him would be superfluous. It will, no doubt, be pleasing to many of his old and tried friends to see his familiar face behind the counter and prescription case again, where he for many years before the war conducted so successfully the same business. Also Mr. John Reakirt, one of the former partners, may be found at the same place, always ready to meet his friends and former patrons. Mr. Reakirt's reputation as a gentleman and a thorough practical druggist is well and favorably known in both this city and Cincinnati, where he, in connection with the firm of J. & C. Reakirt, has for so many years carried on a most successful business in the drug line. We bespeak for this house a liberal share of the trade in their line of business, and we are very sanguine they will have it.

We notice the old house of C. C. Cleaves & Co. is again filling up with an elegant stock of books and stationery, selected with special reference to the city trade, particularly the stationery department, which is well selected and quite complete. They have a good stock of law books, including nearly all the best books in use, and their arrangements are such that any law book not on hand can be obtained on short notice. This is the oldest book and stationery house in the city, which is now under the management of J. F. Smithwick, Esq., an experienced bookseller, and with such assistance as the industry of Captain J. S. Hatcher, we must predict for them a liberal trade the coming season.

We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of a great bankrupt sale of books at Passmore & Co.'s auction room, commencing on Monday, October 7, for thirty days only. This stock is large and elegant, consisting of standard and miscellaneous books, Bibles, prayer books, photograph albums, elegant bound books, stationery, blank books, portfolios, etc. We would remind the ladies and gentlemen of Memphis and vicinity that this is a chance seldom offered to buy choice literature to fill their libraries cheap. This sale is for a short time, and all should avail themselves of it at once.

THE DEMI MONDE ON THE MUSCLE.—Kate Conner and Maggie Smith, two cyprians of low degree, quarreled yesterday, and gave an exhibition of female pugilism in the neighborhood of Cooper alley. Officer Gaskill, thinking such exhibitions inexcusable, conveyed them to the station house, where their angry [illegible] will have an opportunity to evaporate.

THE NEW MEMPHIS.—Last night was produced the moral drama of "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." Miss Boyd appeared as Miss Morgan, a character which she rendered in her usual style—good, very good, for a lady as young as her upon the stage. Miss Katie Gilbert was equal to anything that we have seen upon the stage, and we have seen almost all the infant prodigies. The Bateman children were no better than "Our Katie," when they had a world-wide reputation, and should Mr. Gilbert educate his daughter for the stage, she will achieve a reputation equal to any. She reminds us of little May McVicker in the angelic beauty of her face, the purity of her intonation, and the prettiness of her figure, than anything we have ever seen. Mr. Ellerton, as Sam Switchell, although attempting to play a Yankee character, almost made us think he was on an expedition to Donnybrook fair—his intonation being more Milesian than Puritan. Miss Fannie Pierson, as Mehitable and Sally Scraggs, fully maintained her previous reputation, and we assert that half an hour listening to her pleasantries, and laughing at her vagaries, is a sure cure for the blue devils. Monday night, Lady Don, a burlesque actress of some note, will make her first bow to a Memphis audience in the new play of "Caste," a character in which she has made a reputation. We fully expect a treat.

CHANCERY COURT.—Yesterday the case of Keel vs Keel, set for hearing, was submitted to the Court.

The other case, Hardin vs Avery was continued over to some other day.

The following decrees were entered:

James vs James et al., decree for sale.

RIVER NEWS.

AVALANCHE OFFICE,
SUNDAY, October 6.

BUSINESS—WEATHER—RIVERS.

The morn of yesterday opened with clouds, a fresh air and a drizzle. The sun came out during the day, and made the atmosphere more genial. It was clear at night, and the air was cool enough for frost.

The rivers are in statu quo, only the Ohio has swolen an inch or two at Louisville. They have had heavy rains, but not enough to affect the rivers seriously. The channel has cut out to five feet to Cairo, and St. Louis may be reached with about the same certainty.

ARRIVALS.

Steamer Gleaner, Arkansas river.
" Louisiana, St. Louis.
" H. M. Shreve, St. Louis.
" Rubicon, Vicksburg.

DEPARTURES.

Steamer Rubicon, St. Louis.
" Louisiana, New Orleans.
" H. M. Shreve, Vicksburg.
" Rowena, White river.
" American, Arkansas river.
" Des Arc, Vicksburg.

MISCELLANEOUS.

There was some life and activity on the landing in loading the Rowena and Des Arc, which had both clever trips.

The American was light for White river.

The City of Cairo was not on time, but probably will be here to-day if Bob Riley and McCreight can get her through. She is to leave at ten a.m.

The Gleaner, Captain King, goes for the Arkansas river on Monday at five p.m.

The Commercial, Captain Ashford, will be the Tuesday's packet for White river.

The Paragon, Captain Lee, is up for St. Louis at five p.m. to-day, connecting at Cairo with the Illinois Central.

The St. Patrick, Captain Huls, will leave for Vicksburg on Tuesday afternoon. Gay boat that, and Clay rice does the honors of the office.

The Belle Memphis, under Captain Davis and Clerk Dean, will be the St. Louis packet to-morrow at five p.m.

The Dan. Able, after certain changes for the better, and a trial trip, which has proved satisfactory, will go into the Vicksburg trade on Saturday next. She has proved herself among the swiftest of the best boats, and her accommodations are superior. Captain James Lee, sr., is still in command, with Billy Fields and Stack Lee in the office. Jim Sanisbury is freight clerk.

The Selma Times of the 1st instant learns that the Josh Lawrence sunk at Red Jacket bar on Saturday, the 28th ultimo, about eleven o'clock. She was on her downward trip. All freight on deck was taken off and carried ashore by the Nyanza. That portion of her cargo in the hold will probably be saved, though more or less damaged. She will probably be raised without much trouble.

Notice to the Public.

IN retiring from the Drug business in this city we would give notice that we have sold our entire Stock, together with the Fixtures, Lease, etc., of the well known stand, No. 315 Main street, to Dr. J. B. WASSON & CO., to whom we were formerly successors; and after returning our heartfelt thanks to our numerous patrons and friends who have so liberally favored us during our continuation of business, we solicit for our successors a continuance of the same. As to the character and qualifications of our worthy successors in this branch of trade, their reputation is too well and favorably known in this city and throughout the country generally for us to be able in anything we might here state to add thereto. Suffice it to say they are of long and tried experience in this branch of business, and therefore most cordially recommend a continuation of our patrons with this house.

JOHN A. NIPGEN.

The unsettled business of NIPGEN & REAKIRT and JOHN A. NIPGEN will be settled by either of the old partners at the old stand.

JOHN A. NIPGEN,
NIPGEN & REAKIRT.

To the Public.

In having made the above purchase and resumed business at the old and well known stand, No. 315 Main street, where we have so often and for so many long years of sunshine and adversity met our old friends and patrons; and as a train of unforeseen providential circumstances have shifted us around to our former place of business, it is with feelings of earnest congratulation that we are again prepared to offer to our former patrons and the public generally a large and well selected stock of Drugs, Medicines, etc., etc., and, indeed, everything usually kept in a first class and well conducted Drug Store, to which we are now adding, and will continue to add constantly, fresh supplies of the most staple and choice articles the markets can afford. And as we shall import from foreign markets direct, and from first hand dealers, we intend making this House "the Drug Emporium of the South;" we would, therefore, hold out special inducements, to both Wholesale and Retail Dealers in the city and country, to give us a call, examine and price our Stock before purchasing elsewhere, for we are determined, by our close vigilance of the markets of this and foreign countries, as well as with sound, practical judgment in making our purchases, so as to be able, with the choice quality of our Stock and the low prices we will offer them at, to be able to vie with any, and even defy competition. Anxiously hoping, therefore, that these propositions (for we intend to make good to the letter all we have proposed), will meet with the hearty concurrence of our old friends and patrons and the community generally. We are very respectfully yours, etc.

THE DISCOVERY OF THE AGE

NO material which has ever been discovered has effected greater benefits in the household economy than

McGIMSEY'S MAGIC SOAP.

It is a labor saving invention as well as an invaluable remedy in scurvy, scald head, eruptions of the skin and piles. Dandruff is removed from the head, the teeth whitened and cleansed, plate and jewelry cleaned, stains effectually removed from carpets, furniture, clothing, paint, varnish or marble with the greatest facility and without injury to the material. It is a great saving of time and labor in washing clothes. It is the only known soap which will wash flannels with the ease of cotton or linen without falling or shrinking. All these important objects can be effected without injury to the skin or the most delicate fabric. It possesses no deleterious qualities whatever. The world is challenged to produce a soap which possesses so many valuable properties, and which is so innocuous and safe. It is a home invention, an [illegible] competition in any part of the world. It has become a necessity in Memphis, and its use is rapidly spreading throughout the South, and eventually will extend over the Yankee States, North and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Oceanica. Manufactured solely by C. F. McGIMSEY, Memphis, Tenn., and can soon be found at any respectable family grocery or drug store. The proprietor is determined that its manufacture shall keep pace with the rapidly extending demand for its use

TEXAS TONIC SYRUP

A Vegetable Compound for the Rapid and Never Failing Cure of

CHILLS & FEVER OR FEVER & AGUE

Every Poison has its Antidote—Every Disease has its Cure!

THE people of the Mississippi Valley, and throughout the entire South, have long felt the necessity for, and want of, a SAFE, CERTAIN AND RELIABLE REMEDY, as a substitute for Quinine, Strychnine, and other poisonous Drugs, for the cure of Fever and Ague, or Chills and Fever. We claim, and the results will show, and bear ample testimony to every unprejudiced mind, that the Texas Tonic Syrup has supplied this want and accomplished this purpose. Its Tonic, Alterative and Antiseptic qualities are such that none can possibly be disappointed in its effects. Upon its own merits, therefore is it sustained. A single trial is all that is needed to stamp this remedy as the greatest specific of the age.

The ingredients of which this Medicine is composed are simple productions of nature abounding upon certain streams in the State of Texas, and were ever used by the Aborigines of that State as a specific for Fevers of all kinds, and especially Fever and Ague, which they never failed to cure.

A celebrated physician, acquainted with these facts, has furnished us his theory upon this important subject, and hence the product properly named TEXAS TONIC SYRUP, which we now offer to the public as a specific and POSITIVE cure for Fever and Ague, or Chills and Fever, no matter of how long standing.

Having had indubitable evidence of its prompt and certain effects from the testimony of a multitude of respectable citizens, we do not hesitate to recommend this preparation in all cases of Fever and Ague and Chills and Fever; indeed, from the facts in our possession of its intrinsic value, it would not be too much for us to state that when the directions are strictly complied with we warrant a cure in every case where it is tried. It is pleasant to the taste and the cheapest Medicine in the world. Therefore, in truth, it may be declared the day is not far distant when it must be appreciated and used in every household where Fever and Ague or Chills and Fever is found to exist.

A LETTER NEVER SENT.

A letter [illegible], [illegible] promised, and [illegible]
But was it sent? At least it should have been;
A [illegible] of love hung on a single note,
As music does, with many a bar between.

'Twas written, and upon each glowing line,
The heart expressed its tumult of applause;
But fears appall'd, for if that heart of thine
Answered it coldly, then was lost the cause.

A letter never sent! Why write it then?
'Twas to commune with one most dearly lov'd;
To be, by that, so nearer her, as when
Eye look'd to eye, with hope to be approved.

Yet apprehension, still, like iron chain,
Kept back the missive; for, like sculptor's art,
It brings upon the memory again
Bright visions that are pressed upon my heart.

EXCITING SCENE AT AN EXECUTION.

The Hanging of Diggs, at Murray, Kentucky.

At the execution of Diggs, at Murray, Kentucky, on the 27th ultimo for the murder of Miller, there was a considerable stampede, which is thus described by a correspondent of the Paducah Herald:

When the gallows was reached, it had to be mounted by a ladder. The sheriff ascended first—then assisted Diggs up. Standing erect upon the narrow trap door, he slowly surveyed the mass of human beings beneath and around him, and began in a clear and distinct voice to address them. He spoke of his course in crime in brief terms—attributed it to evil company—said that he had not killed Miller, but that he was present, and detailed a few of the circumstances, and was alluding in bitter terms to the evidence of some of the witnesses who had testified against him, when the listening stillness of the crowd was startled by the loud report of a gun upon an adjoining hill. The crowd became wildly excited. The guard called to have the way cleared. Panic seized the whole mass, and it retreated in all directions from the guard in alarm and confusion, to avoid the balls of the coming conflict which had been so long anticipated.

The prisoner had not much more to say, when order was restored, and the sheriff proceeded to execute the law, which was done without further interruption, except that the victim of the gallows asked to look again on the people, which was permitted and then the cap being re-adjusted, he was launched into eternity.

American Excursionists in Egypt.

NEW YORK, October 5.—A special to the Post from Washington says rumors of Cabinet changes are current, whether there is any truth in them or not. It is known at least that one officer of the Cabinet—General Grant—anticipates being relieved from the duties of his position as Secretary of War at no distant day. A prominent official of the War Department stated today that the General has held himself in readiness for a week past to surrender his portfolio to whomsoever might be appointed to succeed him.

Colonel Henry, American Consul at Quebec, Canada, has tendered his resignation, to take effect immediately.

A Wall street rumor says that the President is determined to call General Sherman to the War Department.

ALBANY, October 4.—The Democratic Convention met this morning and passed resolutions pledging the Democracy to reclaim New York from misrule and corruption, as a first step to the restoration of the Union and Constitutional Government; that the national debt is a sacred obligation, and demands economy of administration, honesty in collection and application of revenues; equality of taxation on currency for the benefit of the people; denounce the efforts of the Republican party to retain the power it has usurped, by the establishment of negro supremacy in the South by military force and the disfranchisement of the whites, as an outrage on Democratic principles, and an attempt to undermine and destroy the republic; stigmatises the refusal of the question of negro suffrage to the people as a cowardly evasion of the Republicans; that corruption, legislative degradation and revenue demoralization is proof that the Republicans are incapable of governing the country; calling on the Federal Government to enforce the doctrine that adopted citizens are entitled to protection; opposes the excise laws, and urges its repeal, and winds up with thanks to the soldiers and sailors.

WASHINGTON, October 5.—The receipts of customs for the week ending September 28th amount to $4,145,393.

J. Warren Bell has been appointed Collector of Customs at Corpus Christi; vice McIntyre, deceased.

LONDON, October 4.—The following particulars of the recent movements of General Garibaldi have been received from Italy:

While in a passion at Alexandria, Garibaldi persistently refused to give his parole not to engage in any hostile enterprise against the papal States. Meanwhile the Italian government, hoping to allay the excitement which was caused by his arrest, gave orders for the transfer of the prisoner to his home at Caprera, without insisting upon a parole. The General was accordingly taken to the island, where he was apparently set at liberty. Soon after his arrival he suddenly disappeared from the island, and succeeded in reaching the main land. But his movement had been carefully watched, and he was again arrested and sent back to Caprera, where he now remains, under guard, a prisoner in his own home.

LONDON, October 4.—A dispatch from Alexandria, Egypt, announces the arrival of the steamer Quaker City, with the American excursion party on board; all well. Captain Duncan telegraphs that the Quaker City will leave Alexandria on the 17th instant, and, after touching at one or two points on the Mediterranean, will reach Gibraltar before the 25th instant, when they will start direct for home.

The Greatest Cough Remedy Ever Discovered.

DR. C. WILLIAMS'

Compound Pulmonic Balsam of Wild Cherry and Wood Naptha,

FOR THE COMPLETE CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, and all other Lung Complaints, tending to Consumption.

READ! READ! READ!

THIS justly celebrated preparation is recommended by some of the most learned and intelligent physicians in the country, and will be found far superior to any remedy for the cure of all diseases of the respiratory organs. All persons who have used it for Asthma, Cough, Spitting of Blood, Whooping Cough, Croup or Hives, Consumption, Pain, Soreness of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, and every other disease of the Breast and Lungs, attest to its superior efficacy in the most unqualified terms.

BRONCHITIS, a disease which is annually sweeping thousands to a premature grave, under the mistaken name of Consumption, is promptly relieved and cured by it. The usual symptoms of this disease, (Bronchitis) are Cough, Difficulty of Breathing, Hoarseness, Soreness of the Throat or Lungs, Asthma, Hectic Fever, accompanied with spitting of phlegm or matter, and sometimes blood. It is an inflammation of the membrane which lines the inside of the wind tubes or air vessels which run through every part of the Lungs. This Pulmonic Balsam immediately suppresses the Cough and Pain, subdues the inflammation and fever, removes the difficulty of breathing, by producing a free and easy expectoration, so that a cure is soon effected. It always cures in ASTHMA. Two or three doses will cure the CROUP or HIVES of children in a few minutes, and it is remarkable how promptly it acts in subduing the violence of WHOOPING COUGH, and affecting a speedy cure, and many who have been given up by their physicians as incurable in Consumption, have been restored to perfect health by it.

Sold by all Druggists in Memphis and everywhere in the South and West.
